Your Instructor
Davenport University Professor Dan Sullivan has lived and taught extensively in China.

Ningbo University professors will give presentations on the culture and economy of China and the Yangtze River Delta.

Contact Information
Program Faculty Director:
Dan Sullivan
616-554-3966
1-866-WALETTINGA
daniel.sullivan@davenport.edu

Study Abroad Office:
Alex Akulli
Sr. International & Study Abroad Advisor,
616.554.5317
alex.akulli@davenport.edu

Alan Walczak
Director of Study Abroad and Department Coordinator
616.554.4700
alan.walczak@davenport.edu

Why should you study in China?
• China is the world’s third-largest trading nation. If a butterfly flaps its wings in China, the United States feels the breeze.
• China is the most populous, fastest growing major economy in world history.
• Doing business successfully in China means understanding its cultures, traditions, and people.
• Living at Ningbo University offers opportunities to know China through the eyes of Chinese people.
• Prepare yourself to live and work in a global context.

“I have never entered a foreign country and felt so welcomed, respected, and appreciated.”
— Cassandra Haan,
China Study Abroad, 2008

Study Abroad in Ningbo, China

May 14—June 4, 2010
Live on-campus
at Ningbo University
Experience China with Davenport

China, where 5,000 years of tradition meet the marketplace, is the world’s fastest growing economy in history and a major trading partner of the United States and the European Union. Davenport offers you the opportunity to experience the tradition and witness the changes firsthand this summer.

Chinese Cultural Experience

Local Culture:
- Archaeological site with a 7,000 year history
- Oldest existing private library in Asia
- Mountain retreat of Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek
- Ningbo downtown hub

Three Overnight Trips:
- Shanghai shopping, the Bund, world-class Shanghai Museum, Yuyuan Garden
- Hangzhou silk and West Lake, home of legendary Lady White Snake
- Putuo Mountain and island: beaches, hills, and Buddhist temples

Course of Study

You may take a total of 6 credit hours that count as general education credits in DU degree programs.

Choose from the Following Courses

SABR 381 - Study Abroad Experience
Examines the experience of being in another culture through participation in activities, observation, and reflection.

ENG385 - Special Topics: Chinese Literature

HUMN301 - Global Perspective
Study of the forces that shape a culture and the resulting cultural productions.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the price?
- Estimated cost is $3,450.

What is included in the price?
- Round-trip airfare
- Tourist Visa
- Private room and meals at Ningbo University
- Local cultural tours
- Three overnight trips
- Ground transportation for tours

What is not included in the price?
- Tuition and related course fees
- Books
- Bus and taxi fares
- Travel Insurance
- Passport
- Personal expenses

Are scholarships and financial aid available?
- Yes, students are eligible for financial aid in the form of subsidized and unsubsidized student loans. Contact your Career and Education Specialist and Alex Akulli, Senior Advisor for Study Abroad and International Students, early to discuss financial aid and scholarship options.

Is this program open to all students from all Davenport University locations?
- All Davenport students who have successfully completed ENG 109 and who register for study abroad coursework are welcome.