The Davenport University Library Information Commons offer a full range of information services and resources, serving alumni in the online environment as well as at the physical Library Information Commons, available at most of the campuses.

Print Resources
The Library Information Commons have a combined collection of about 100,000 items.
- Books
- Reference Books
- Magazines & Newspapers
- Videos, DVDs and special collections are also available at selected Library Information Commons. Please check with the individual LInC on the availability of these materials.

Electronic Resources
- Web site that provides remote access to the Library Information Commons catalog, recommended Internet resources, and information on the individual Davenport Libraries. Select “Library Information Commons” on the Quick Links at http://www.davenport.edu.
- Online catalog that provides access to the combined collections of the Library Information Commons. The catalog is accessible to anyone in the world with a graphical Web browser.
- On campus access to research databases with full-text articles and reference sources covering a broad range of materials and subjects including biographies, business and company information, computers, country information, literature, health, investment and finance. Due to licensing limits, remote access cannot be offered to alumni.
  - Internet access & Microsoft Office.

Services
- Reference assistance is available on site as well as via phone, fax, or e-mail (see contact information at the end of this brochure).
- Borrowing material from any DU Library Information Commons. (Please allow 3-10 business days for delivery to the pickup campus.)
- Self service through the LInC catalog. Alumni can access their account to request items, view items they have checked out, renew items and review fines & fees.
- Study space is available in each Library Information Commons and some also have private or small group study rooms. Please consult with the individual LInC about availability.
- Copy Machines are available in each LInC for copying library and research materials. Some campuses charge a nominal fee for this service.

Policies
• Loan period is 2 weeks. Circulation policies vary regarding videos and periodicals. Please check with the individual LInC regarding checkout of these materials.
• Two renewals are allowed. Items may be renewed by phone or through the online catalog.
• Alumni may check out up to 10 items. Up to 5 items can be requested via the online catalog.
• There is no grace period for overdue items.
• Fines are $.10 per day per item for books and other print materials. Please check with your local LInC for video fine rates.

Locations and Hours
DU Library Information Commons are typically open throughout the day and evening as well as some weekend hours. Consult the posted hours outside a specific Library Information Commons, call them, or check the Web page for hours of availability.
