Davenport University is a private, non-profit university in Grand Rapids, Michigan, that prepares students for in-demand careers in business, technology and health professions.

W.A. Lettinga Campus
6191 Kraft Avenue SE (M-6 at M-37)
Grand Rapids, MI 49512
616-698-7111

Website
www.davenport.edu

Accreditation
Higher Learning Commission - North Central Association of Colleges and Schools (NCA), International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE) and other program specific accreditations.

Quality & Value
Davenport offers value by keeping tuition among the lowest for all state private colleges and universities while still providing:
- Academic quality
- Small class sizes (15 student average)
- Convenient Campuses
- Faculty with real-world experience (no teaching assistants)
- Dynamic curriculum addressing in-demand careers

Scholarships
Scholarships based on academic qualifications vary in amounts up to full tuition.

Course Delivery
Courses offered days, evenings and weekends. Online courses available 24/7.

Degrees
Master of Business Administration
Master of Science Information Assurance
Bachelor/Associate degrees in business, technology and health including:

Business
Accounting Fraud Investigation
Human Resource Management
International Business
Management and Marketing
Sport Management

Technology
Biometric Security
Computer Information Systems
Computer Gaming and Simulation
Network Security

Health
Health Information Management
Medical Case Management
Nursing

Athletic Teams
DU is a member of the Wolverine Hoosier Athletic Conference and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Davenport’s 24 men’s and women’s teams include:

Baseball
Basketball
Bowling
Competitive Cheer
Competitive Dance
Cross Country
Golf
Hockey
Lacrosse
Rugby
Soccer
Softball
Tennis
Track and Field
Volleyball

Rev 01-15-10