Medical Assisting
Associate of Applied Science

Launch your healthcare career here. Our program builds a foundation of practical skills to prepare you as a preferred candidate for hire. You’ll master communication skills, patient care techniques, basic lab operations and medical office procedures — and be prepared to take national certification exams.

Why DU?

• Accredited by Medical Assisting Education Review Board through the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs.

• 91% of DU graduate respondents reported in-field employment with an increase in salary.

• 100% of employers report satisfaction with DU graduates in the field.

• 96% of DU graduate respondents report that they would recommend this program to others.

• Experiential learning practicum reinforces and advances skills with hands-on experience and interaction in the workplace.

• DU graduate’s passing rates for certification exams are 10 percent higher than the national average, at 78% in 2012.

• Experienced, highly credentialed healthcare professional faculty.

• We maintain the highest quality standards with continuous accreditation with the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs.

• Medical Assisting is taught at the Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Lansing and Saginaw campuses.

Davenport University

• We are a private, non-profit university, preparing students for careers.

• We award $15 million in scholarships each year.

• We maintain a low student-to-faculty ratio.

• We offer 11 campuses across Michigan.

• We specialize in flexible online or on-campus classes, days and evenings.

• We are nationally respected for our curriculum and faculty.

College of Health Professions

The DU College of Health prepares you for growing opportunities within many healthcare disciplines, including nursing, health information management, occupational therapy and allied health. We focus on building essential skills for your professional advancement. Find your future with Davenport’s College of Health Professions.

Learn more from admissions representatives at 800-686-1600 or davenport.edu