

Authorization for Publication, Broadcast and Distribution

The undersigned party hereby grants permission to Davenport University (hereafter the "University") its faculty, staff and agents the right to use, free of charge, any photograph, audio, and/or video recording, and/or other electronic image in any and all formats including but not limited to University publications, the University website, University advertisements and other promotions, including distribution to external media.

The undersigned party hereby relinquishes any claim of payment, royalty or other income and releases Davenport University from any such future claim by agents, heirs or representatives of the undersigned. Further, the undersigned hereby releases Davenport University from any claim of payment and liability for use of any photograph, audio and/or video recording and/or other electronic image as used by organizations to which it is distributed by the University directly or indirectly.
