Resident Assistants (RAs) are available 24/7. They are upperclass students specially trained in all aspects of community development. They are responsible for maintaining an environment that is conducive to studying and promote a sense of community among residents. There is an RA on each residence hall floor who acts as an advisor to floor members and is available to discuss academic, social, and personal concerns and to provide resources.